

“The mind is an engine whose power is undreamed; thought is an omni-working power. It is the ruler and creator of all form and all events occurring in form. “

—Charles Haanel, The Master Key System

INTRODUCTION

Everything in your “reality” appears from the matrix of thought. Every person, every event, every circumstance, every condition, every single thing in your life was first created in the mental realm of your mind before it appeared in the physical world. It is the secret of all ages and a scientific fact of nature that absolutely nothing originates in the physical realm. This third dimensional objective “reality” is a mere reflection of conditions and forms that were first forged in the subjective or mental realm of thought.

“The spiritual prototypes of all things exist in the immaterial world before those things become materialized on Earth.”

—Helena P. Blavatsky

This truth has been known since the incipience of mankind’s recorded history, but has only been truly understood by a tiny handful of great minds in each generation. The vast majority of humanity, including many of the most educated among us, still attribute creative power to sources outside themselves. They have no idea that they are the source and the cause of everything that occurs and appears in their life.

“All things that have happened to you are based on thoughts impressed on the subconscious mind through belief. “

—Dr. Joseph Murphy

That statement by Joseph Murphy, one of the great Mind Power Masters of our modern era, holds the key to manifesting anything you could ever want in life. Did you catch it? Maybe this quote attributed to Jesus will help:

“As you have believed it will be done unto you. “

—Matthew 8:13

As you have believed it will be done. Jesus didn't say as you have wished or as you've occasionally pondered. The man was pretty clear. But what exactly is a belief? A belief is any thought entertained by your conscious mind that is accepted as true. Once validated as a truth, the thought is passed to your subconscious mind to be stored as a belief (we'll talk more about this process in Chapter 1) .

Let's say you believe that money is the root of all evil. I'd be willing to bet that you're chronically poor. Maybe you believe you have bad luck. If so, I'm certain that you do. The beliefs we hold in our subconscious mind are magnets—they attract things, people, events, and circumstances into our objective reality that are necessary to fulfill themselves. So if you adopt a belief along the lines of, “The Universe is always so generous to me,” good fortune will absolutely follow. It's the Law (of Attraction) .

“The predominant thought or mental attitude is the magnet, and the Law is that like attracts like, consequently, the mental attitude will invariably attract such conditions as correspond to its nature.”

—Charles Haanel

You may be wondering where your predominant thoughts and mental attitudes— your deep-rooted beliefs—come from in the first place. Most of them originated in your early childhood. Before the age of seven a child's subconscious mind is designed to believe any thought, rule, value, moral, or ideal it receives from an authority figure—parent, teacher, religious leader, or other trusted adult.

“The earliest stages of a child's development form a time when the mind accepts anything presented to it. This is the precritical mind, before the mind was developed enough to question or doubt.”

—Dr. John Kappas

Beginning around age eight, children develop the ability to reason; to think in absolutes and discern truth from fiction. Their conscious mind begins to filter the information it receives, forming a logical firewall to prevent anything that seems even remotely sketchy from getting into the subconscious and becoming a belief. By age twelve, it's almost impossible to trick their mind into believing something that obviously isn't true. That's why if you're broke, and you try an affirmation like, “I'm the richest person in the world!” you stand approximately zero chance of bypassing your mental gatekeeper .

But I am a hacker (of minds), and I know the secret back doors to your subconscious that will allow you to slip in the beliefs you wish to see manifested.

Some of the things I 'm going to tell you are going to sound...well, unbelievable . Don't let that concern you. If you keep an open mind and follow my instructions exactly, you will soon become a believer. How? Because the things you desire will begin to manifest in your life as if by magic.

Throughout this book you will find quotes to support important points (so you don't think I'm just making this stuff up), drawn from the knowledge and wisdom of history's greatest Mind Power Masters—Ralph Waldo Emerson, Charles Haanel, Ernest Holmes, Joseph Murphy, Napoleon Hill, Wallace D. Wattles, Wayne Dyer, and many others. Numerous quotes from great scientists like Brian Greene, Ervin Laszlo, Albert Einstein, David Bohm, Werner Heisenberg, and others are included to demonstrate that Mind Power—your ability to manifest the events, circumstances, and things that appear in your reality by the correct, scientific application of your mind—is not wishful thinking. It has been the secret power of the elite in all ages, and is supported by discoveries in quantum physics and ongoing research into the mechanics of human consciousness.

What you hold in your hands is a metaphysical master-class in manifestation. I intend to instill in you a power that has been sought after for millennia by saints and sages, prophets and priests, witches and wizards. It's a force the most powerful beings ever incarnated have struggled to harness; a secret ability born in the mists of antiquity, yet understood by only a small handful of enlightened souls—the most brilliant beacons in humanity's history.

Not even in your wildest imagination could you fathom the awesome creative power you will wield by mastering the techniques in this book. For that reason, it would be irresponsible of me to make this information available without a word of caution: if you use this power to harm or destroy, expect to meet a similar fate. Creation born of love and good intention for everyone your creation will affect can—by Law—produce only positive results. I urge you to use your powers for good.

"For the power thus rendered available is the power of the mind, and the effects of the use of this power are so far-reaching, whether for good or for evil, that it is a thing not lightly to be trusted into the hands of any human being."

—Dion Fortune

This is an instruction book for your mind. Use it to become one of history's illumined souls, and to better humanity through your unique creative contributions .
